MATHEWS COUNTY.

SUSAN.

There was never a stranger so greatly missed perhaps from St. Paul's church as Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, of New Jersey, who have been spending the winter with Mr. George Hunt, the saw mill man of Port Haywood. This old gentlemen with his wife were always in their places in the Sunday school, the prayer meeting and the preaching services. A plain quiet unassuming christian gentleman, never pushing himself into prominence, but always ready when called upon to teach a class, lead in prayer or give an exhortation. They have now gone back to their northern home but carry with them the prayers and best wishes of all who formed their acquaintance.

The children's day at St. Pauls on last Sunday evening passed off very quietly. The house was crowded, but perfect order was observed. The program was arranged and the little people conducted themselves finely reflecting much credit upon the committee by whom they were trained. They have the thanks of the church. The collection $7.94, was less than was expected, but small favors thankfully received.

They did not consult the Oracles. Onlast Monday morning most any fisherman might have safely predicted a rainy day, but a number of females consisting of "Virgins fair and Matrons grave," with a number of little tots had set their hearts on going out in the Bay to see the pounds fished. So after breakfast quite a procession might have been seen with lunch baskets and babies going down to Horn Harbor anticipating a good time and plenty of it, and it seems as if they got plenty of it. The rain came down in torrents, the wind increased to a stiff breeze and some the juniors not accustomed to be rocked in the cradle of the deer, were forced to "Cast their bread upon the waters." In the early part of the afternoon the craft came puffing up to the wharf and thesoaked crowd crawled out on the shore, the rain still coming down one of the party on being offered an umbrella declare that they had no use for it. They all seemed to be in a good humor and started for their homes a wetter and a wiser people. LEUMAS.
